*Life is not a race, but a journey to be savoured each step of the way.
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, and today is a gift.
That’s why it’s called present.*

Reflection

Today's Gospel is one of those passages that seem so simple on the surface, but when we begin to realize what is being asked of us, we can see how challenging it actually becomes. Love the Lord your God, with all your heart, soul, and mind.

Can we honestly look at ourselves and say that every part of our emotional life, our spiritual life, and our intellectual life is freely given to God daily? How about the commandment to love our neighbor as ourselves? Do we truly treat the people around us in a way that reflects how we want people to treat us in return? Do we show the respect we desire to our family, our friends, and those that our heart falsely names enemies? From this point, I think it is safe to say that the greatest Commandment can also become one of our greatest challenges.
