Monday, 17th January, Feast of St Anthony of Egypt (AD256-351)- the father of Monasticism is the patron Saint of Animals, and traditionally animals, particularly pets are blessed on this day; both to honour this blessed saint and to celebrate the important bonds that people have with animals.

Blessing of Pets

Pets can be brought to St Andrew’s Churchyard from 6:30pm on Monday evening for a blessing.

Meeting with Readers

Parish Readers are invited to an Information and Prayer Meeting on

Wednesday, 19th Jan. at 7pm-7:30pm in St Andrew’s Church for Curraha Parish

Thursday, 20th Jan. at 7pm -7:30pm in St Mary’s Church for Ardcath and Clonalvy Parish

Please let Parish Office know if you would like a Readers Missal for 2022.

Smart Catholic Phones

Podcast:- “Bible in a Year”, Ascension Media has produced Bible in a Year Podcast with Fr Mike Schmitz that aims to read the entire Bible over the course of a year. Each episode is about 20mins long, and can be accessed for free in the Podcast App on your phone. It started at the beginning of January but can be dipped into at any stage.

Popular Catholic Apps

- Hallow: the #1 Catholic Prayer and Meditation app; think Headspace or

Hallow

Calm but for Catholics! With over 500 audio-guided prayers and meditations, Hallow provides a beautifully designed way to spend more time with God and meditating on His Word

- Laudate is the classic, all-encompassing Catholic app. It offers daily readings, the Liturgy of the Hours, a Confession app, prayers, links to the Catechism and other Church documents, and so much more. It is a useful tool for any Catholic wanting just about anything related to your Faith at your fingertips.
- Magnificat: is the app from the same company that brings us the monthly Magnificat Missals. It gives you access to the daily readings along with various articles, Hymns for the Month, Lectio Divina, and resources for blessings and prayers.
