The solemnity of Corpus Christi invites the faithful to celebrate the most precious of sacraments, The Blessed Eucharist and to call to mind the sacred words of the Lord Jesus at the Last Supper: "This is my Body given up for you, This is my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant which will be shed for you".

This feast helps us to focus on Jesus' presence in Holy Communion, to foster a deeper devotion and reverence in receiving Him in Holy Communion, and to remind us that when we see that burning red sanctuary lamp before the tabernacle how close the Lord is to us, waiting for our love, ready to pour out His Blessings upon us as He hears all our prayers. "How awesome this feast, in which His Passion is recalled, grace fills our hearts, and we are given a pledge of the glory to come"

Feast of the Sacred Heart Friday 24th June 10, 2022

Holy Mass: St Mary's, Ardcaith at 9:30am

Holy Hour and Devotions: 6:30pm-7:30pm St Andrew's Curraha

"Behold, this Heart that loves so much yet is so little loved!"

The feast of the Sacred Heart, like Easter is a moveable feast each year. It falls on the 24th June this year, which is traditionally the Solemnity of the Birth of St John the Baptist. With the feast of the Sacred Heart taking precedence, St John the Baptist's feast will be celebrated the previous day, and because of his Patronage of the church in Clonalvy, an evening Mass will be there at 7:30pm on Thursday, 23rd June with the blessing of St John's Fire taking place. Traditionally a bonfire was built to mark the vigil of the Birth of the Precursor to Christ, it was a night marked by festive celebrations after prayers were said to mark the turning of the year (Coinciding with Midsummer). We pray God's blessings on our parish of Clonalvy for the coming year.
