3rd Sunday in Ordinary - Word of God Sunday – This Sunday has been set apart to invite reflection on the Bible in our lives. For in the sacred books, the Father who is in heaven meets His children with great love and speaks with them; and the force and power in the word of God is so great that it stands as the support and energy of the Church, the strength of faith for her (children), the food of the soul, the pure and everlasting source of spiritual life. Consequently these words are perfectly applicable to Sacred Scripture: “For the word of God is living and active” (Heb. 4:12) and “it has power to build you up and give you your heritage among all those who are sanctified” (Acts 20:32; see 1 Thess. 2:13).

Vocations Notice:

In the Gospel this Sunday we see Christ walk into the lives of the fishermen. They had been mending nets, the tools of their work. At His word, they leave everything to follow Him. Being with Jesus becomes the essence of their lives, His person becomes the new net which to cast into the waters of time. The disciples become ministers of His Word. Every call to the Sacred Priesthood occurs when the Lord walks into our lives with His words of invitation, “Follow Me.” He is still inviting young men to cast out the nets of faith today. Being a priest is to be always with and near Jesus and to bring Him to others. Answer his call, cast his nets. Be a priest that will bring many to Jesus.

I'M PRETTY SURE THE
"FISHERS OF MEN" THING WAS A FIGURE OF SPEECH.
