Thank you for your generous support with the running costs of our parish.

The week that contains the very central celebrations of the mysteries of our Faith, giving it the title of Holy for each of these days draws out the wonders of God's loving plan of salvation. It is an invitation to enter into this Great Week in order to encounter the full meaning of the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. With so many attractions and distractions around us at this time of year, that we can lose the joy of following Christ, let this week find us following the path to Jerusalem with green Palm in hand, entering into the closeness between Jesus and His Disciples around the table of the Last Supper and the Garden of Gethsemane, reliving the torment of Good Friday that won our salvation at the cost of Divine Blood, before waiting in hope for the new life of Easter. Let Holy Week speak to our hearts once more.

Palm Sunday: Many thanks to the Susan Keogh, Curraha and Patricia White, Clonalvy for the donation of branches for our Palm Sunday celebrations. We thank the 5th & 6th Class children for folding the palm branches into crosses. Keep your Palm Crosses/Leaves in your homes as a sign of welcome to the Lord into your homes throughout the year.

Trocaire Boxes: Please return Trocaire Boxes to the Sacristy or the Parish Office as soon as possible.

Chrism Mass: Spy Wednesday 5th April @ 7pm, Cathedral of Christ the King, Mullingar.
All welcome.
